AMARCHISTS IN BUFFALO PLOTTING A TERRIBLE BLOW.

Incriminating Letter Directed to a Prom nent Red in the Bands of the Police Plans of Chicago Mains, In-Take Tower and Fair Buildings in the Hands of Expert Destroyers-The Eunday Opening Fight Assumes a New Phase-Prospects of a Serious Fight.

BUFFALO, N. Y., May 18 .- The police here yesterday claimed to have discovered evi-dence of a plot to blow up the waterworks and fire the World's Fair buildings at Chicago. They claim that a letter was accidentally picked up at the Anarchists' headstreet. It introduces Sebastian Verombelski, to Joseph Schultz, a leading Buffalo An-archist, but Schultz denies that he knows anything about it. The letter, which is written in German, bears the date of April 29, and part of it, translated, reads as fol-

The hopes which I held out to you when last we not are about to be fulfilled, and we shall look for mest are about to be fulfilled, and we shall look for much assignance from you.

This isster will introduce Sebastian Verombelski, who will explain the assistance we need. He has the complete plans of the waterworks mains from the mough of the in-take pipe to the pumping sta-tions, also plans of the Pair buildings.

The police claim that it indicates the exis-of a plot devised to avenge upon Chica go the execution of the Anarchists conmned for the Haymarket murders.

Detectives are searching for Vrombelski who is evidently a stranger here.

Isaac Ehle, a leading Anarchist, last night said he heard of the plot about three weeks ago, but placed little confidence in it. He said: "When the Anarchists were hanged in and possibly they consider that the time to has arrived. All these years have been spent in study. They have sympathisers ics, and if they wish to get even with Chicago World's Fair it could be accomplished as easily as snapping one's

The local Anarchists held a secret meeting last night at which the strange letter was discussed by excited members of that organ-

THE SUNDAY OPENING.

Local Directors and National Commissioners at Loggerheads. WORLD'S FAIR GROUNDS, CHICAGO, III. MAY errived at Jackson Park this morning move taken yesterday by the Exposition Sunday. The Commissioners have thorhave suspected that the local authorities would take the action they did yesterday. The general opinion, however, among the Commissioners was that the vexatious question which is dividing the people of the United States would be allowed to slumber until the next session of the commission. That body voted yesterday to take a recess until May 31 after adjournment today, but the gentlemen who are here to carry out the will of Congress are considerably exercised over what they term the defant attitude of the Chicago directory, and there is a disposition among the Commissioners to continue in session with or without a quorum so as to deal with the Sunday opening situation.

so as to deal with the Sunday opening situation.

The commission did not meet until noon but several influential members of the august body taiked of issuing an urgant telegraphic summons to every absentee to come here at once. The more impulsive commissioners who have been at loggerheads with the Chicago authorities ever since the national body first met threaten to obliterate the Sunday opening resolution, but the legal advisors of the local management are unanimously of the opinion that the law of Congress gives the National Commission the right only to modify such rules as emanate from the directory, but neither to create new rules nor obliterate those adopted by the directory and submitted to the Commission for modification or approval. On that issue the line of battle will be drawn, but as there is not likely to be a quorum of the Commission present to-day the validity of any action taken may be questioned.

Although the rain has softened the roadways and the clouds hung white over the city to day threatening another wet day.

Although the rain has softened the roadways and the clouds hung white over the city to-day, threatening another wet day, the force of men in the ticket office and at the turnstiles were kept busy this morning with the crowds which came early intendingno doubt to put in a day and night of it seeing the general electrical illumination which is on the programme for to-night.
Electricians and other workmen were to be seen to-day in the buildings and outside on roofs and marrow ledges seeing that the lighting apparatus was in working order. Visitors to-day in glancing up at the acres of roof on the Liberal Arts Building noticed two search lights at the northern corners. One of them is the largest ever built. Its mirror is five feet in circumference, and the light which will flash from it tonight will equal in brilliancy 1,000,000 candle power. The other search light is semaller and it is expected both will be ready for the illumination to-night. The citizens of Milwaukee will be able to see the rays of the big light without any trouble. Every part of the park and all the buildings are to be bathed in electric flame and the electric fountains are to be in operation to-night according to the programme.

One of the prettiest sights in the park is to see two laborers at work on the same job.
Both have shovels in their hands so as to disguise themselves as real workmen. No.
I takes up a shovels in of gravel and tenderly lays it down near No. 2. The latter lifts the same shovelful of dirt and gently passes it back. This shuttle-cock movement of the muscles tends to keep their blood in circulation and wards off paralysis, but it is delayling the final completion of the Fair.

Crowds of school children out for an object jesson, chaperoned by teachers, were in the grounds early and soon many of the great buildings rang with their shouts. At each point of interest the teachers halted their noise bands and explained in language suitable to the young mind an ex implification of the resources or product of 'ngenuity displayed. The little ones evinced great interest and asked thousands of ques lons, but noisily demanded that their preceptor "hurry up." The Saturday holiday in the schools always brings a large crowd to the Fair, and 'children's day" promises to be popular until the close of the rair puts an end to the impressive schooling. Ine fire underwriters of Chicago came down to the grounds this morning, and although their stay was short, they succeeded in creating more excitement on the grounds than has been had since the Fair opened, and thoroughly mixed up the now famous Columbian guard, who attempted to keep a moderate-sized crowd in order. The underwriters wanted to see what the Fire Department was worth, and had an alarm turned in at the fire stations and guard-houses from the east front of Manufacturers' Building. The fire department apparatus arrived on the seena in quick time and the efficiency of the firemen was easily demonstrated to the satisfaction of the gentlemen, who do business down on La Salle street. Streams of water were thrown high in the air and the crowd applauded the creditable performance of the Exposition Fire Brigade.

CHICAGO, Ill., May 18.—The National World's Fair Commission yesterday took up the report of the Committee on Music, recommending the removal of Theodore Thomas from the position of musical Gen. J. W. St. Clair of Virginia spoke Gen. J. W. St. Clair of Virginia spoke against the report, saying it would wreck the musical department. Mr. Lannon of Utah and Mr. Glendenning of Arkansas spoke for the adoption of the report.

Commissioner Ryan of North Dakota paid his respects to Theodore Thomas in the following language: "That man is corrupt and he has taken this action through corrupt motives. I am in favor of wiping him out of this Exposition and the National Commission has the power to do it. That is about all that is left to us after our illegal abdication in favor of the Board of Control and then the Council of Administration. If the commission refuses to assert its supreme authority in this music matter it countenances bribery and corruption."

A motion to lay the report temporarily on the table was yoted down, but Chairman Lannon, fearing the defeat of his report, rose to ask that it lay on the table until there was an assurance of a quorum. The sentiment of the commission seemed to be in favor of deferring judgmen, against Theodore Thomas until articles of peace could be drawn up by the Council of Administration.

SABBATARIANS WILL FIGHT.

Crafts, the Chairman of the New National Committee on Sunday Closing of the World's 'air, recently organized at Columbus by officers of the American Sabbath Union. the W. C. T. The committee expect to employ able counsel also. The Secretary of the committee, Rev. H. H. George of Beaver Falls, Pa., is sending out an appeal to the public.

CHARIVARIED HIS FATHER.

How John Voepel's Second Marria Was Resented by His Son.

William on a charge of disturbing the peace. oughly understood the sentiment of the Directory on the Sunday closing Voepel, a widower residing at No. question and for a long time have suspected that the local authorisecond wife much to the displeasure of his son who got a lot of his companions to go down and charivari the couple. The groom summoned the police and Kohn, one of the serenading party, was arrested. Judge Morris fined the boy $5 but afterward remitted the fine at Voepel's request. The atmosphere of the Voepel homestead is apt to be very unhealthy, however, for young Voepel.

Foundation of the Columbia National Bank of Chicago.

MOVELTIES IN FINANCIERING BY DWIGGINS, STARBUCK & CO.

Country Banks Organized in Endless Se ries and Their Stocks Used to Back Debenture Bonds-A Trust Company With $1,000 Worth of Furniture as Visible Assets-Echoes From the Chicago Crash Contin ue to Be Reard.

CHICAGO, May 13.-The Columbia National Bank failure has been followed by so many small bank breaks that gossip in financial and officers. The following story is printed

The financiering of Zimri Dwiggins and his combination is so inextricably mixed with the affairs of the Columbia Bank that it will take the skill and ingenuity of twenty Phila-delphia lawyers to effect a disentanglement mathing about the history of its Presiden affairs and lead to a better comprehension ountants must adopt.

Zimri Dwiggins was a banker in Attica ind.. when ten or twelve years ago he estab lished close business relations with George Wiggs and J. M. Starbuck, who were running a chain of bucket shops under the style of Wiley, Strawbridge & Co. Suitable bank references for effect on country speculators not being always obtainable it was deter mined to start a bank. The United States National Bank of Chicago, capital $50,000, was accordingly established type on the bucket-shop literature. Wiggs years, and under a general amnesty was admitted to membership on the Board of Trade. He continued in the bucket-shop business, however, and was finally indicted under the bucket-shop law. He entered a plea of guilty and was fined.

The Board of Trade took cognizance of the matter and suspended Wiggs for a year or two. That broke up the bucket-shop business, and Wiggs went to New Mexico, leaving the bank to charge of his friend and as-sociate, Zimri Dwiggins. While absent he ran across a silver mine which he thought could be bought and worked off English investors at a profit. Meantime the capital stock of the United States Bank had been swelled to $500,000. About $300,000 was drawn from the bank to buy the mine, and if the sum has ever been made good it must have been within the past six months. The mine was never "worked off" according to expectations, and remains to this day a dead

It thus appears that the Columbian National was founded on a $300,000 deficit. How much of the remaining $200,000 of the capital stock of the United States National was also represented by a deficit will be revealed by the experts as they proceed with the examination of the Columbia's assets.

Nothing daunted by the failure of the New Mexican mining scheme, Messrs. Dwiggins and Starbuck branched out upon an extenand starbuck branched out upon an exten-sive and very ambitious scheme for the es-tablishment of a chain of country banks. There is no record of how many banks they organized, but from the following partial list of the rural banks of which either one or the other is President, it will be seen that they are still very largely "in it."

Those located in Indiana are;
Clay County Bank, Clay City; J. M. Starbuck, President.
Dwiggins, Starbuck & Co.'s Bank, Clinton, Vermillion Co.; J. M. Starbuck, President.
Citizens' Bank, Monroeville, Allen Co.; J.

Farmers' Bank, Pierceton, Kosciusko Co.; Z. Dwiggins, President.
Bank of Spiceland, Spiceland, Henry Co.; Ind., J. M. Starbuck, President.
The Illinois list comprises the following:
Byron Bank, Byron, Ogle Co.; J. M. Starbuck, President.
Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank, Casey, Clark Co.; J. M. Starbuck, President.
Georgetown Bank, Georgetown, Vermillion Co.; Z. Dwiggins, President.
People's Bank, Martinsville, Clark Co.; Z. Dwiggins, President.
Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank, Mount Carmel, Wabash Co.; J. M. Starbuck, President.
Farmers' Bank, Ridge Farm, Vermillion Co.; J. M. Starbuck, President.
There are at least twenty other small country banks that Dwiggins and Starbuck beiped to organize and in which they are still supposed to have interests, in the two States named. They also have two banks in Michigan, four in Ohio and two or three in Wisconsin. It does not appear that George W. Wiggs had much to do with his old partners after the collapse of the New Mexico mine, and he is now extensively engaged in the grain commission business. His relations are now supposed to be merely friendly.
After the organization of the Columbia two years ago, the two—Dwiggins and Starbuck—engaged more extensively that ever in the country bank promotion business, and their ramifications and connections are more extensive now than ever before.
The plan seems to be about this: A town would be visited, and some bonest man, usually a well-to-do farmer, would be picked out to begin operations on. 'How would he like to be the cashier of a new bank an interest in be bids and starbuck or somebody they can handle is made President of the new concern, which is managed from the central office in Chicago, so far as important operations are concerned, the bulk of the funds being kept at the reserve center the bank already established is purchased.

The country bank stook thus acquired was either used as collateral for loans at the Columbia, was in a promotion bus

"happy thought." The literature of the United States Joan and Trust Co. was a series of glittering promises. It represented that upon the basis of country bank stocks yielding 8, 10 and 12 per cent dividends, 5 and 6 per cent debenture, bands would be issued, the security in every case being worth at least 38 per cent more than the face value of the bond. The loan and trust company guaranteed principal and interest.

Two hundred and fifty thousand of these debentures were taken and are backed by $450,000 country ank stock.

Just what form the arrangements took between the Columbia and the trust company has not been mide plain. That is simply a matter of bookteeping. It is certain that Columbia securities found their way into the possession of the trust company, and it is to be prerumed that the proceeds found their way back into the Columbia cash book. The loan and trust cempany has no rating at the commercial asenties. Among its visible securities are $1,00 worth of elegant office furniture.

furniture. Facts are coming to light going to show that the Columbia Bank was interested either directly or indirectly, with many out side business enterprises. One of the largest of these, which was in the nature of s of these, which was in the nature of a World's Fair speculation, was the famous Mecca Hotel enterprise, which stands as a mammoth monument of bold manciering at the corner of libity first and State streets. This enormous structure, which is eight stories in height and occupies a solid block, was built on money furnished, to a great extent, by Messrs. Dwiggins, Starbuck & Co., the financial directors of the defunct Columbis. Messrs. Dwiggins, and Starbuck were both directors of the Mecca corporation until a short time ago, when they aliege that they withdrew.

A MILLION IN CURRENCY FROM ARMOUR. MILWAUKEE, Wis., May 18.—The expected run is being made on the Plankinton Bank run is being made on the Piankinton Bank on account of the implication in the F. A. Lappen failure. The belief is that the bank will pull through the scene around the bank is one of activity, but there is no panic and no indication of one. Business men feel seure. P. D. Armour of Chicago, one of the heavy stockholders in the bank, is understood to have sent $1,000,000 in currency to the institution by express this morning. Depositors are being paid as apidly as they can present their claims. The Plankinton estate, which is also largely interested in the bank, is also understood to have come to the rescue with a large amount of dash.

A BAD GRAIN DEALERS' PAILURE. LINCOLN, Neb., May 13.—The failure last night of Kendall & Smith, grain dealers, who have been operating fifty-five elevators in Nebraska, Kansas & Missouri, seems to be a Nebraska, Kansas & Missouri, seems to be a bad one. Their liabilities are said to reach from $250,000 to $300,000. The failure was precipitated by the appearance of L. Everingham of the Board of Directors of the Columbia National Bank of Chicago, who yesterday demanded payment of a $25,000 claim. While he was here the firm filed mortgages and bills of sale covering their property in favor of other creditors, among the latter being Congdon & Co. of Chicago for $45,000. The assets are unknown.

THE ARREST OF GOOD.

CIRCINNATI, O., May 13.—The assets of the Citizens' Bank of Williamsburg, O., which assigned yesterday, are given as $30,000; liabilities, $60,000. Z. H. Dwiggins of Chicago is President and C. H. Lockard, cashier is President and C. H. Lockard, cashier. Two of the five members of the corporation were members of the Columbia of Chicago, the failure of which institution alarmed them. Lockard says they will be able to pay dollar for dollar.

The failure caused the wildest excitement among Williamsburg people. A rumor was circulated that Expert accountant Lawrence P. Good had left town carrying a satchel at 5 in the morning. A warrant was sworn out charging him with having embezzled $10,000 of the bank's money, and he was arrested in this city on a telegram from the Williamsburg authorities. He had only a small amount of cash in his possession when taken from the train. The Treasurer of Williamsburg township had $5,000 in the bank, Mrs. B. N. Stock $6,000 and Rufus Walker $1,200. Good, who will be sent to Williamsburg, says the bank assigned because of the Chicago failure, and in order to protect its Ohio depositors from attachments from Chicago creditors.

TWO SMALL PAILURES IN LONDON. LONDON, England, May 13.—The members of the Stock Exchange gathered on the floor this morning expected to hear the failure of ome firms officially announced. They were agreeably surprised, however, when they found that only two small failures had occurred and that some of the firms that were upposed to be in difficulty had effected their settlements. The knowledge produced much relief and added steadiness to the market. A number of firms, lucluding that of the Greek speculator mentioned in yesterduy's dispatches, who was said to have been deeply involved, received sufficient sssistance to carry them over the settlement.

THE BANK OF OREGON. Madison, Wis., May 13.-The Bank of Oregon, established a year ago by Dwiggins, Starbuck & Co., of Chicago, assigned and its affairs were placed in the hands of J. J. affairs were placed in the hands of J. J. Lindsay and M. W. Terwilliger. The Columbia National Bank of Chicago owed the bank $7,000, and when cashier Thomas heard of the failure of the Columbia, he determined to shut down at once. The assets are $35,000, the liabilities, $30,000. Of the latter sum $25,000 is due depositors, including nearly all the business men of the city of Oregon.

ONLY NEEDED $10,000. Indianapolis, Ind., May 13.-Upon the announcement of the failure of the Columna Bank the firm of Paris & Nave, whose headquarters are in this city, closed the doors of their string of banks, including the Bank of Orleans, Bank of Rossville, Ind., Bank of Freeport, O., and the Bank of Rockport, Mich. None of the banks give any capital stock. Mr. Nave says $10,000 with their assets would have cleared them all and if they could have secured what the Columbia Bank owed them their suspension would have been unnecessary.

IN THE COLUMBIA STRING INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 13.—The liabilities of the Greentown Bank, which has closed, are stated to be $60,000. Reports from other small places in the State show that a panic has seized the smaller banks. The bank at Brookston, White Co., suspended at no on to-day. No statement of its condition has yet been given out. It was controlled by the Columbia National of Chicago.

The banks of the Columbia National string at Morristewn and Greenwood are said to have also failed. The Morristown Bank is of considerable importance, having a capital of $75,000.

PASSED THE DIVIDEND. St. Paul, Minn., May 13.—The Pillsbury-Washburn Flour Mill Co. passed its yearly dividends yesterday, much to the pointment of the stockholders. The failure to pay is set down by the directors to the low condition of the wheat and flour market, although the volume of bus iness is said to be as great as ever.

MONROEVILL B, Ind., May 18.—The Citizens Bank of Monroeville opened as usual this morning in hopes depositors would have confidence in them since they claimed no connection whatever with the Columbia Bank. A large crowd of depositors awaited the opening, and made a run on the bank, which paid until about 10 a. m., when the funds were exhausted and the bank was obliged to close its doors.

PARMERS AND MERCHASTS' CASEY, Ill., May18.—The Columbia Nations Bank is principal stockholder in the Farmers' and Merchants Bank of this city. It made an assignment yesterday. The assets will probably reach $16,000. Liabilities un certain, but it is thought that they will reach $25,000 or over.

The extending of the facilities of this company unced so soon after the great slump in Cordage and the National Cordage Co.'s re announced so soon after the great slump in Cordage and the National Cordage Co.'s receivership, is causing no end of discussion and speculation. The rumors of a consolidation of the weak with the stronger interest, which were so abundant on the street recently, have become rife again and more pronounced than ever. The John Good Co. ond the National Cordage Co. have been strong rivals in every line of the cordage business except the manufacture of binder twine. The determination of the John Good Co. to enter into the manufacture of this article seems to give the rumors much appearance of truth.

John G. Jenkins, Jr., the business manager, said: "No, the prospect of or the desire for consolidation could not have been the cause of this move of our company. The crash in the National Cordage Co. did not happen until a week ago and we had the plans drawn for this more than two months ago. All we have been waiting for is good weather and a good condition of the ground. "As to going into the making of binder twine so as to be able to carry on all of the Cordage Co.'s business in case of a consolidation, we were actuated by no such motive. The National 'ordage Co. must have made on binder twine last year, as we figure it here, at least $3,000,000. The John Good Co. thinks it can push up its profits considerably by going into this line, which seems to be very remunerative."

"Mr. Jenkins," asked the reporter, "have

"I have heard nothing of such a move, although it may be going on quietly. Still I think I would be likely to hear of anything of the kind."

"Do you think the National Cordage Co. can get on its feet by itself?"

"Well, really, I cannot see how the company can possibly be in such a bad condition as has been stated. I hope it will get up again. We are rivals in business, but I have quite a number of good friends in the National Cordage Co., and I think they are too able men to be pushed down so easily. If there is any truth in the rumor of consolidation I don't see how anything can be done about it until the receivers have made their report on the condition of the National Cordage Co."

PANIC IN MILWAUKEE.

The Plankington Bank Saved by Gold

MILWAUKEE, Wis., May 13.-As a result of the failure of Frank A. Lappen & Co. yesterday a run was begun this morning on the Plankington Bank, which held $219,000 of the defunct concern's paper. All the morn defunct concern's paper. All the morning there were crowds around the doors of the institution. There were the usual scenes of such occasions, excited men and weeping and desperate women. The fearful ones were mostly the small business men and members of the working blass. The bank, however, paid all accounts as fast as they could be presented, but even this did not seem to satisfy the ones outside, and the crowds increased until the hallways of the building in which the bank is located, and the sidewalk was filled with a crowd of uch A anxious depositors. This scene continued anxious depositors. This scene continued anxious depositors. This scene continued the special train from Chicago bringing gold to special train from Chicago bringing gold to miles, in tess than two hours. The money, which is supposed to be from P. D. Armour, one of the stockholders in the bank, and thought to be in the neighborhood of $500,000, was taken to the bank from the St. Paul Depositions, and the stockholders in the bank, and thought to be in the neighborhood of $500,000, was taken to the bank from the St. Paul Deposition as affe. When the safe which was carted on a wagon guarded by seven detections which were surrounding the institution. The run is not yet over, but some of the shout went up from the crowd of creditors which were surrounding the institution.

The run is not yet over, but some of the more confident depositors have left the bank. The Wisconsin Fire and Marine Insurance Co. Bank at 11 o'clock sent over $40,000 in currency. There are no further developments in the Lappen failure to-day further than the filing of a judgment for $25,000 by A. Hilderbrand and a number of small attachments.

The death of Mrs. Emma Bastian, the wil of Joseph Bastian, a saloon-keepe North Broadway, last Thurs day, under very peculiar circumstances, is being investigated by the police. WASHINGTON, D. C., May 13.-Letter-carrie eorge T. Pulaski, who was ousted from his ion in the city post-office force by a sicality of the Civil Service Commission rules, will make that body account for its action to the court. Judge Bradley issued an order yesterday directing the Commission and Postmaster Sherwood to show cause why Mr. Pulaski should not be reinstated. This er was signed upon the application of R. H. Beall, who represents the letter carrier as attorney and who presented for him a pe-tition for a mandamus. The Civil Service Commissioners, Messrs. Lyman, Roosevelt and Johnson, and Postmaster Sherwood are to appear before Judge Bradley Saturday,

If Mr. Pulaski is successful a mandamus will be signed requesting these officials to reinstate him. The legal points involved are interesting, and may be carried to the Supreme Court of the United States. Red tape is interwover with the whole affair and its power to de-arising from this novel case, while the peti-tion for a mandamus is itself interesting. The petition recites that Geo. T. Pulask post-office March 29, 1892, to take the examination for substitute letter-carrier. His application was approved April 1, 1892; he took the examination, received notice Aug. 25 that he had passed and was entered upon the register for eligibles. He received notice Feb. 20, 1883, that as soon as he had filed his bond he would be appointed. This require-ment was fulfilled and he received the ap-

The notice of his appointment was sent t the Civil Service Con aission on April 5, but the commission refused to make a record of it. This refusal was followed by a notice of his dismissal on April 22, which came in the form of this terse note:

In reply to an exhaustive statement of his case, prepared by his attorney, the applicant for justice received a brief letter from Commissioner Lyman, which dismissed the matter with an expression of sympathy.

Sir.—Acknowledging the receipt of your brief and the petition is the case of George T. Pulsaki, the commission has this to say that it has given respectful attention to the papers submitted, and while it sympathizes with Mr. Pulsaki it is of the opinion that action aiready taken is the correct and only proper action in the case and that it cannot therefore reverse it. Very respectfully
CHARLES LYMAN, President.

CHARLES LYMAN, President.

The case rests bere until May 20.
When Mr. Pulaski was dismissed from the Post-office his name was placed at the foot of the list of eligibles. If it should be reached before Aug. 1, he would be re-appointed, but at that time his name will be taken from the

As the case is presented to the court by Mr. Beall the burden of the proof is laid upon the commission and the Postmaster. The letter carrier shows that he fulfilled all the legal requirements, was appointed to the office to which he was entitled, and then deprived of it. The officials must come forward and expiain that it was a clerical error which dismissed him. Then the court must decide whether such a failure to follow up the red tape can avail to keep a man from the office be has won.

Mr. Fairchild stated there was no other considerations or reasons which led him to resign other than those of a business nature, which at the present time were sufficiently imperative to compel him to decline the Secretaryship.

WEEDING OUT LEAVE OFFICERS.

WARHINGTON, May 13.—When Secretary Lamont began to scrutinise the list of army officers on detached service some days ago the name of Lieut. Lemly was the first to strike his eye, being unusually conspicuous by reason of the long period of leave granted him. The blue pencil immediately went through it. Orders followed revoking the leave and directing Lieut. Lemly to return to his regiment.

The blow was a hard one to the young officer who happened to have just arrived in the city from Colombia for the purpose of going to Chicago in ch rge of the exhibit of that country. when the "Boss base ball president" woke this morning his ears were still ringing with the shouts of victory which went up rom 6,00 throats yesterday afternoon at the conclusion of the game between the Browns and disvelands.

He saw the sun shining brightly without a sweet smile dawned upon his placid entures as he thought of the immense crowd which would swarm into his park this after-

But when he picked up the morning paper and glauced down the column where in the proceedings of the House of Delegates last hight were feeleded a change came over his smiling countenance, and with knit brows and flating eyes be said unto himself. "I got fly eye on those fellows. They want to hold the up and shake the down."

The item which caused this remark was a atoment that Delerate Sippel of the Fif-sits ward had introduced a bill in the outs of Delegates by which it was pro-naed to the base ball parks in the city the int of $2,000 per annum. "Now, if I had sent them fellows annual they wouldn't have done this. I must think ouie, and he went out into the open air.

How IT CAME ABOUT.

In yesterday's Post-Disparch there apsafed an account of a letter which Presient Nagel of the City Council had adressed to Secretary Osmer of the Council

There was also an interview in which

"Well, Julius is a member from this ward, here the park is located—don't you see?" it denotes the park is located—don't you see?"

"Well, Julius is a member from this ward, where the park is located—don't you see?" said another member.

"Well," replied the genial and smiling Jim, "I just think we'll tax the Dutch park for about $50,000."

Andeo, whether the bill introduced last night by Delegate Sippel was the result of this little spiseds or had been previously planned could not be ascertained to less, though the presumption is that very sudden conclusion was ched by certain members of lower House to call "Chris" to time and lind bim of the fact that he had forgotten mething. Base bail parks at present pay no license or tax to increase the city revenue, and the object of the present bill is to place ball games on the same plane with a circus or any other public amusement, forwhich a heavy license is at present required.

The Bill is LEGAL.

The point was raised that the bill was not worth the paper it was written on, because it was a species of class legislation and would not hold water in the courts, even if passed by the Municipal Assembly. Such, however, is not the case. The City Counselor, when asked this morning about it, said that the city had a perfect right to exact the tax, and that in the event the bill passed the only power the courts could exercise would be to review the measure from a point of reasonableness as to the amount of the tax levied.

"If give this opinion fearlessty," said Mr.

"If give this opinion fearlessty," said Mr.

remonaumeness as to the amount of the tax levied.

"I give this opinion fearlessly," said Mr. Marshall smilling broadly, "as the City Counselor has no pass to the ball games, and could not attend even if he had one."

Two or three members of the House who were at the City Hall this morning, said that they thought the bill a very just one and wondered why a similar measure had not been introduced before. Mr. Von der Aberuns a public show, they claimed, and makes lots of money out of it, therefore he organ to contribute to the public revenus.

It is more than probable that at least twenty-eight passay will soon be made out by Mr. Von der Ahe's secretary, and Mr. sippel's bit may be put to sleep in one of the pigeon holes of a House of Delegates committee room.

titled against them on Monday by Humane Officer Holmes. That gentleman said this morning: "There were statements in the account of the affair that I want corrected. I did not tell Miss Hickman that I would attend to the matter if I got time. I told her my subordinates were out on other duty, and that I myself was busy with a more important matter—that of the Rauchenbach children—and as soon as I could go down I would do so. I went to Marshal Thomas' office and told him of the action of his officers. The dog catchers are his officers, you know, and I spent two hours of my time going down to investigate the matter. I found the dog-catchers had tied the cow to a tree, but had furnished her food and drink. I advised the Marshal to have her removed from the neighborhood, as she might break the rope by which she was tied and seriously injure pedestrians. He said she could not well be removed, as she would lift the box of the wagon with her horns. I fold him to get a wagon with a different bed—a stake wagon—and remove her. I shall put the men on trial on the charge of leaving a crippled animal on the street, which is the only charge I can prefer, but I have no hope of securing a conviction, as the case is against the employes of the City Marshal, in a court of which that officer is Marshal. Judge Morris will probably tell them to go."

"Why does not Marshal Thomas supply a different class of men as dog catcher?" Mr. I loimes was asked.

"You can't get gentlemen to act in that capacity," was the reply.

"Ould not the city do without the dog catching institution altogether?"

"No, the rapid multiplication of worthless canines would cause too many people to be bitten."

"Would it not be better to abolish dogs?"

"No, dogs are batter than police."

"You can't act marcher be commelled to the city do without the dog catching institution altogether?"

vent less fire in and obscene language and to use the process or the best poodle dogs in the rountry belonging to Mr. Whittaker, the pork packer, slipped its collar one day and got out upon the "street. The dog catchers caught it and handled it so roughly that they put out one of its eyes. I know of another dog, worth more than $200, which got out without his license badge and was caught in the presence of twenty people. Its owner went to the pound to recover the dog almost immediately, and was told that it had escaped from the wagon where they were putting in another dog. He never recovered this valuable animal, which the dog-catchers certainly disposed of. On the other hand, sometimes these dog-catchers get dangerously bitten. Some time ago one of them got his jaw badly crushed by a vicious dog. Now, I would pound a dog into a leily before I would have my jaw lacerated in that way, and so would you. I have made them use a different and higher wagon for goats than the dog wagon formerly used. But to return to the cow case, "said hir. Holmes, "they should have shot the cow when she first showed vicious instincts. I had no right to interfere with the City Marshal's officers in the performance of their duty nor had any policeman that right. All we can do is to prevent cruelty in such performance. With my insufficient force—three men—I cannot attend to all that occurs in fifty-seven square miles of territory. I am trying to have a new pound built somewhere north of the center, as the only one now is in the extreme south, and then cows need not be driven so far."

"Would not the Chicago dog-muzzling act work to better advantage than the present arrangement?"

"I think it would. I always muzzle my heavy mastiff when I have him out. I am sure I have no end of trouble with these dog-catchers. They are hard to convict for various reasons, and when I have a case against them Judge Morris is never severe with them. I want you to watch this case—hear the testimony and note the result."

A PENNSYLVANIA SCHEME.

Millions to Be Invested in Tunnels for New York Terminals.

New York, May 13.-Charles B. The tunneling of the North and East Rivers is the chief object the consolidated corporations have in view. Then direct and continuous connection between Brooklyn, New York and Jersey City and all points on the Pennsylvania road will be secured.

The capital stock of $200,000,000 is merely nominal," said Mr. Thurston. "The work will cost millions of dollars. Expert engineers have been at work upon the project for the past two years, and the plan is feasible enough. The purpose is to conduct passengers from all parts of Brooklyn and New York to the Pennsylvania main line as quickly as possible." Terminal Co., reveals a great scheme which

Some years ago when Col. Haskins began his great tunnel under the Hudson River it was intimated that the Fennsylvania Railway Co, would avail itself of the transit facilities it would afford, and it is not unlikely now that the company will take up the uncompleted work and finish it.

MAY LANDING, N. J., May 13.—The liftle town of Mispah, eight miles from here, is in danger of being destroyed by fire. A forest fire has burned over thirty miles of timber around the town and is now within a short distance of the place. Over 5,000 acres of timber land has burned which was owned by the Mispah Agricultural to. The damage done so far amounts to over $75,000.

The Practice Ship Bancroft Will Be Turned Into a Gunboat. New York, May 13.-The gunboat Bancrof has been ordered to proceed to the Brooklyn Navy Yards, where she will be fitted out for foreign service. The Bancroft was designed and built for service as a practice ship for the Annapolis naval cadets, but since her completion naval officers have arrived at the opinion that she is too small and cramped in quarters for the service of a practice vessel. They say, however, that the Bancroft will make an admirable gunboat for service in the rivers of China and other Eastern countries. This view is estertained, it is reported, by the Secretary of the Navy, and the Bancroft will be fitted out for service abroad.

And if the air can be monopolized by some chartered corporation a duty should be laid upon the breezes from Mexico and the north wind from British America. THE BRENNAN CASE.

The fact that the Mayor is compelled to act as prosecutor, judge and jury gives the proceedings in the hearing a farcical aspect. It is natural that the humorous features of the case should appeal to the wit of the dayor's opponents and the risit the public. But while enjoying the joke on his honor, it should be borne in mind that there is a serious side to the matter. The case is not by any means only a joke.

the most important offices in the city. Its importance is accentuated at the present time by the fear and actual danger of epi demic and the pressing necessity of vigorous and efficient sanitary work, to guard the city against a plague vis- sleep. itation. Public-spirited citizens have organized a campaign of cleanliness, and have endeavored to arouse the municipal authorities to a full sense of duty in this regard. Private aid has been offered for this urgent public service. The situation demands a Health Commissioner of undoubted ability and fitness, and department under him organized on the highest basis of efficiency. There should be no question of the competence of the Commissioner and his force. It must be admitted even by the friends of Dr. Brennan that his competence and the efficiency of the department under his control have not been unquestioned. As a matter of fact there is a general impression of gross dereliction on the part of the Health Department. Dr. Brennan's appointment was discredited by the vicious element of nepotism, and it has been freely charged that he stocked the department with political assistants and "push" hangers-on. It is well known that when the Post-DISPATCH conducted its campaign of cleanliness and when citizens demanded a thorough cleaning of the city as a safeguard against cholera the work of the Health Department was far from satisfactory. Under Brennan's management the department has been tern by disorganizing contentions which are fatal to good work, and Commissioners. Ample warrant is therefore found for the Mayor's action in putting Dr. Brennan on trial. That the form of the trial presents ludicious features is not his fault and should not blind citizens to the momentous considerations back of it. The Mayor ought not to be spoken of as "a barbaric

1 but that all those outlined in his speech and in the so-called platform had little o no relation to the present practica situation.

This is true, but it could not have been otherwise. The issues which come to the surface of affairs as practical problems demanding solution are forces which no one man or group of men can create, hasten or postpone. Men who really represent popular convictions, who stand for some thing vital, are quick to distinguish these real issues, take them up and press them They do so not only for purposes of self advancement but because their hearts are stirred by the moral element which is to be found in every such question. They advocate their cause solely because they cannot help it. It is a matter of con-cience with them.

But men of this sort seem to be wanting in the Republican organization. The leaders are fruitful of expedients, of dodges and games, but they are barren of all moral fervor, without which victories cannot be won. They have no insight They cannot see the real issues, which to their eyes are obscured by a multitude of petty fads and notions. They cannot hear the imperative demands of a whole people because they are too intent upon the clamors of visionaries or of impracticals who have run ahead of their time Hence they "propose" issues. They pick out this fad and that crank, this vision and that fallacy, tie them together and call the string a declaration of principles, No clearer demonstration of Republican decadence could be had than this Louis ville convention. It is a confession of moral and intellectual bankruptcy, a blundering attempt to force issues upon the country, which do not already exist in the conscience of the people, and it is needless to say that the attempt will be a ludicrous and scandalous failure.

THE peace sentiment is undoubtedly growing in Germany and the Emperor may yet be compelled to start his threatened revolution from above. Nothing more clearly shows the ragged condition of divine right than the calling out of a large number of electors to serve in the field practicing special military exercises while the elections are going on. This is dodge which smacks of dire necessity rather than of godlike power. Perhaps the young man, notwithstanding his alliance with the almighty, is like Oliver Cromwell, who, with all his trust, did not fail to keep his powder dry. But it does not look dignified for one under the proection and guidance of heaven to resort to any such vulgar human tricks to circument his enemies.

THERE is considerable comment on the action of the dying Southwesterner who had his dog killed in order that it might be buried with him, and some are inclined to denounce him as selfish and cruel. It is plain, however, that affection prompted the order for the poor dog's execution. The master could not bear the thought of separation. Besides. he was not sure that the faithful animal rould not go out to the grave and die of books and newspapers, though it is true many dogs never think of wasting themselves in that way, but readily take up with another master, not even drawing the color line in the selection of a new boarding place The Health Commissionership is one of man who wanted his dog buried with him sympathize with his sentiment. The City's Land. To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:

I think the ground on which stands the present "Town Hall" was bought by the city from the Lucas heirs, and the Washing-ton Park was acquired from the Smith fam-ily without a monetary consideration; and there is much other land property possessed by the city. Now the city leases some porby the city. Now the city leases some portions of its land. Why not sell fong leases to the best bidders, and thus make a valuable rent roll? The cid town hall on the Levee was good enough fifty years ago, why do we need and desire a magnificent city hall now?
Hecause our population and our wealth requires and justifies it. And we may expect that in the fifty years coming even greater advances will be made. So I say: Let the city keep its lands and get the usufruct. If Henry Shaw's let, corner of Seventh and ing concessions to corporations.

Then let the city get all the rents and profits for the use of its property that it can. Why should not the city receive $7,000 of the $10,000 paid by the Commercial Club to Shaw's estate? Who and what made Shaw's lands so valuable?

Turn Out the Democrats.

To the Editor of the Post-Disputch: Many well-meaning Democrats are severely criticising Mayor Walbridge for his efforts in emoving Noonan appointees whose place he would fill in all probability with his Re-publican friends. In doing this Mayor Walpublican friends. In doing this Mayor Waibridge is only trying to complete what the people of St. Louis in the most emphatic manner commenced in the late municipal election—the displacement of the most disgraceful and corrupt administration that has ever ruled the city.

The administration of Mayor Noonan was a most humiliating failure so far as the city's interests were concerned, but equally disastrous to the Democratic party, and the retention of any of its officials in power will not add to its strength four years from now, but, on the contrary, prove a dead weight.

Many of the appointees of the Mayor are his confidential advisers, and it is but fair he should have about him those who are in sympathy with him, and if those few holdovers had any self-respect—or a keen sense of delicacy they would have resigned ere this. No one would expect President Cleveland to retain in his Cabinet as confidential adviser an appointee of President Cleveland to retain in his Cabinet as a confidential adviser an appointee of President Cleveland to Yet her is what many Ident Cleveland to retain in his Cabinet as a confidential adviser an appointee of President Harrison. Yet that is what many Democrats are demanding of Mayor Walbridge, when they insist upon his retaining as his confidential advisers and trusted officials the appointees of Mayor Noonan. Now, if those few remaining officials do not realize the proprieties of their positions sufficiently to send in their resignations, these Democrats should not stand in the way of Mayor Walbridge's firing out process.

A Wood Carver's Complaint.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch: A furniture trust in this city will begin war of extermination on all wood carvers in their employ. Their instrument of war will be a machine which they are now placing and are pleased to call a carring machine.

The work done by this machine is certainly an abortion on carring, being nothing more than embossing or pressed wood. It is devoid of all sharpness, fine lines or relief which makes carring so beautiful, and has a miserably flat and dead appearance. But it will serve the trust just the same, as it has a capacity of doing fiteen men's work a day. A parior chair will be highly ornamented for 1 cent, a bed-room set for 5 cents and unfortunately the purchaser in many cases will be none the wiser. But, as usual with this breed of people, the public will derive no benefit from this cheap machine ornament. Old prices will prevail and the wages of us poor devils will be cut down by the machines and will help swell their already overflowing coffers. their employ. Their instrument of war wil

Dog Catcher Brutality.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch: After reading in your paper of last even-ing an account of the brutal manner in ing an account of the brutal manner in which three dog catchers treated a poor cow, I think it becomes the daty of every right minded citizen to express his indignation over such an inhuman act. The query is now that dog catcher is going to be allowed to repeat his flendish acts. I suspect he is the one who wired the little boy a few years ago, and who also attempted to wire a man on Easton avenue about a year ago. To allow such acts of crueity on the streets of a civilized city is a blot on it. These men ought to be punished to the full extent of the law, and I hope those people who saw the dog catchers torture the poor animal will respond to the call of justice and humanity and prosecute them. The Humans Society ought to make an example of this case.

American Agent John W. Foster exclaimed that the contents of the documents were unknown until the American case was prepared. As soon as the forgery was discovered the documents were withdrawn.

Sir Charles Russell replied that while the documents had been withdrawn the formal case depending on the documents had not been materially changed. E. J. The organisation is excellently balanced, the brasses giving the woods plenty of opportunity to be heard whenever the score demands. The organization responds magnificently to the graceful direction of the leader.

Sousa possesses the qualifications for a popular leader. He has a splendid idea of tonal effect and in taste is sumiciently catholic to-satisfy all his auditors. The superior rendition of Wagner's "Flying Dutchman" overture swoked an encore and in response came the swaying melody of the popular variety air, "Daddy won't Buy he a Bow Wew."

The applicates which greeted it was reminiscent of the ole Gilmore days. The rendition of Rubinstein's ballet, suite and Lisst's Second Rhapsody, proved interesting if only to show the inability of the band to give adequate expression to composition written for instruments not contained in its. e expression to composition we instruments not contained in miliar drinking song from "Lucretia Borgia." Instead of Guille's tanor solo Mr. Merten sang a solo from "Faust" and responded to an encore with the Toreador song given with fire and dash, but with a sustained forte not called for in the score.

Mme. Fursch-Madi, whose voice has lost some of its youthful freshness, but is still sweet and admirably handled, gave a very pleasing rendition to Gounel's "Quean of Sheba" aria. The bit of the event must be accorded to the violinist. Miss Leonors von Stosch, a roung arrist, who produces ravishing tones from her magnificant less runses. The first two of the books named Macaulay, and the "llivioss scandal," by J. M. Barrie. considerable controversy, but it is well worth almost any trouble to secure.

The books are library size, with very good size type and paper, and are turned out by a patent process lately perfected. The books are not sewed or wired, but are bound by a fexible adhesive backing which permits them to open almost flat.

ABOUT THE BOOKS.

ABOUT THE BOOKS.

"The Reverles of a Bachelor, or, a Book o the Heart''-This American classic has enjoyed a world-wide circulation at its price of $1,25. It is now offered for the first time at a nominal cost to our subscribers. How agreeable is "It Marvel" in this gem of a book from his pen, how quaint, how humorous, philosophical, pathetic and charming.

of a book from his pen, how quaint, how humorous; philosophical, pathetic and charming.

"Lays of Ancient Rome," beautifully illustrated. Macaulay's "Lays" are instinct with the very soul of poetry and are full of heroic action and energy. Like Scott's spirit-stirring ballads, they have a picturesque quality, with graphic breadth and great realistic power of expression. The English, no less than the Roman lays, have the breadth of the battlefield and the sounding notes of the charge to battle. The illustrations of this edition are unique, being executed in delicate outline.

"Tillyloss Scandal"—A new work by J. M. Barrie, author of that Scottish classic, "The Minister," which has had a phenomenal sale, may be expected to whet the literary appetite of every intelligent reader of high-class fiction. In stories of humble scotch peasant life Mr. Barrie is on his own special ground. He knows the characteristics of the Scottish weaver and the peasant class as the sailor knows the sea. His attendes are full of a dry, quaint humor, with a strong realism and great force and directness of narrative power. Never, since Scott's day, has Lowland Scottish fiction had such an interpreter or so entrancing a depicter of character, lit up at the same time with odd situation and amusing or droil incident. A new publication will be added each week. Among the authors whose works will appear from time to time are the following kathanie! Hawthorne, Lord Lytton, Mrs. Saskeil, Thos. De Quincey, C. M. Yonge, Charles Reade and others equally as famous.

These Books may be had over our counter or seven coupons and & cents. Other intersting features will be added to the list from time to time.

Their parents disdall some months ago, and since then they have been left entirely upon their own resources. Their aunt has tried to exercise some supervision over the girls, and has done what little she could to exist them along. The younger girl, Elia, secured a position as domestic servant with a Mrs. McGann of this North Sixth street, but left there last night, saying that she was going to relatives in Kansas City. Her mistress gives her an excellent character. The older girl, however, is said to have manifested a disposition to become somewhat wild, and very little is known of her recent movements except that her associates were not always of the best. Mrs. Idle believes that Jennie may have used her influence over her sister to induce her to enter with her into a life of shame. She is inclined to doubt the statement of the girl that she was going to Kansas City and believes that she may still be in St. Louis. Detectives Hobbs and Tom Tracy are at work on the case, but so far have falled to locate either of the missing ones.

Herman Meyer and Frank Maysing Held for Enticement-The cases against Herman Myer and Frank Maysing, who are charged with enticing two girl, s Mamie Armstrong 14 years old and Lottle Lee, 16 years old, to a room on Mor-gan street near Seventeenth, and there seducing them while they were under the influence of liquor, was yesterday presented for the consideration of the Grand-jury, and in the case of Maysing resulted in the return charge than it was at first thought would be found.

The story of the girls, as related by them to the Grand-jury is particularly revolting.
After hearing the testimony the Grand-jury returned indictments for rape and enticement against Maysing, and for enticement alone against Meyer. The latter was arrested yesterday afternoon, and after occupying a cell in the calaboose all night, he this morning gave bond in $800 for his appearance when called upon. Maysing has not yet been arrested, though the police are maintaining a diligent search for him. He is believed to be in the city, and it is thought that his capture is only a matter of time. No action was taken to indict those interested in the attempt made last Thursday to smuggle the two girls out of the city in order to quash the case against the men.
Attorney Jeff Storts this morning denied that he was in any way interested in the case. He claims that the statement of the girls to the effect that he presented a written document for their signature, in which they stated that their intimacy with the man was of their own free will, is false, and that he does not remember ever having seen any of the persons who figure in the case. found.

Harrison fired the sufferer on the spot and Montgomery had Harrison arrested.

TOPEKA, Kan., May 13.-The Attorney General is receiving many letters asking about the provisions of the new election law requiring candidates and campaign commitrequiring candidates and campaign committees to file sworn statements of their election expenses within thirty days after the election. In the smaller towns no attention was paid to the new law and the time within which statements should have been filed having expired, the successful candidates want to know whether they can be ousted. Assistant Atty-Gen.
Allen said this morning that the letter of the new law was so plain that he could see nothning for officers who had failed to comply with the law within the infirty days to do but to quietly step down and out and go before the people at a special election. Of course trouble may be avoided if nobody is willing to begin proceedings, but as so many successful candidates throughout the State failed to perform their duty under the law, there is sure to be many places where proceedings will be instituted.

In his room the evidences of these vices stand out to the full light of day. In a sideboard are the remains of many a night spent in chasing one or all three idols. A dozen empty wine bottles, a pocket flask of Russian leather, a quart bottle half full of old Bourbon and the sugar to make a toddy are on the top shelf. A one-hole gas stove, a small bowl to brew a punch, a bottle of the finest cologne and three sets of the finest poker chips occupy the lower shelf. The garter of a female, left behind either by acdent or as a memento, lays on the top of the dresser. A messenger and cab call is in one corner of the room, and sundry other articles belonging to both sexes indicate that ladies were in the habit of calling upon Mr. Turner. IN TROUBLE WITH HIS LODGE.

Letters from the Supreme Council of the Knights and Ladles of Honor shows that he was in trouble with the order and that the checks which he had sent on to the supreme council had been protested and returned marked "N. Letters from closs firms asking him to report on collection are scattered over the top of the desk. In his memorandum book appear the entries: "Wrote Sue," "Sue wrote me," "Wrote Sue," "Sue wrote me," "Wrote Sue," if she is the dead man's wife, and the amount of money sent Sue, if she is the dead man's wife, is very small, not amounting to more than $50 during the past six months.

The amount of Turner's shortage will not be known until the Public Administrator takes charge of his sflects.

Turner, it appears, after writing the letter to Graham stating that he was going to do away with himself, went to the Hotel St. Louis, corner Fourth and Locust streets, and engaged a room. About 5 o'clock she returned and seeing him still in the same position decided to investigate, and found that he was dead. A note was left announcing that his death was

The first annual meeting of the Western Intercollegiate Athletic Association will be held under the adspices of the Christian Brothers' College in this city on the last Friday in May next. At a meeting of the dele-gates who participated in the field sports at Champaign, Ill., yesterday held last night it was decided by a unanimous vote that, in recognition of the hearty interest which has been manifested by the Brothers' boys in the association, they should have the honor of supervising the next meeting in their own city. Mr. John Leahy of the Christian Brothers' College was elected President of the association by acclamation. The Vice-President for the ensuing year will be D. H. Jackson of the Lake Forest university, and the Secretary and Treas-urer W. P. Ray of the Northwestern Uni-versity. Owing to the loss of the only copy of the constitution adopted last year, a new one was drawn up and accepted by the dele-gates present at the meeting. The new constitution is, with a few exceptions, iden-tical with that of the Intercollegiate Association. The most important change in the constitution is a provision that every competitor must have been a regular at-tendant at the college he represents in the entire quarter during which the games are make next year's field day at their grounds a memorable occasion.

The sports yesterday were all hotly contested, but owing to the chilly atmosphere and the wet track the time made was not fast. However, notwithstanding the slow track the Western intercollegiate record for the one-mile run, which was 5m. %s. was reduced to sm. 55%s. by a close contest by L. N. Rossiter of the Lake Forrest University.

The record for the 120-yard hurdle was reduced from 20s. to 17%s. by A. C. Clark of the University of Illinois.

A. Tozier of the Christian Brothers' College made a new record for the 16-pound shot put, pushing the sphere 35 ft. 1 in., beating the old record 1 ft. 3½ in.

The 16-pound hammer throw record of 84 ft. 9½ in., made by John P. Sullivan of the Christian Brothers' last year, was beaten by him yesterday with a throw of 87 ft. 7 in.

The results of the games were as follows: One hundred yards dash—Final hest, Weedman, U. of L., first; Tackett, U of I., second. Time, 10%s.

Tug-of-war between sixth and fourth-year classes -Won by the seniors. THE TURF.

Billy Finch, the Nashville turfman, who was here last season with the Lyle & Par mer string, arrived in town this morning and will spend the afternoon at the Fair mer string, arrived in town this morning end will spend the afternoon at the Fair Grounds. Billy has his string now racing at Louisville. He is undecided whether to go to Hawthorne or Latonia after the Churchill Downs meeting closes. "I would like to come over here, said Finch, "but I think I can win just as much money, about one-half as easy, at either Hawthorne or Latonia as I could at the Fair Grounds. I am not training this season, having secured the services of a man named Cook, who, so far, has given satisfaction." Finch has eight horses in his charge this season, including Rueben Payne, who ran third at Louisville yesterday, Jim White, a maiden 3-year-old and some promising 2-year-olds. Payne is a fair classed plater, while Jim White is about in the same class, although a most uncertainperformer. Billy says he expects to develop a stake winner from his 2-year-old lot.

The Carl Brothers, who owned Soundmore, the winner of the first race yesterday, bet 510 each way on their herse in every book at the track. Their winnings figure up in the thousands. Very few of the "knowing ones" thought well enough of the bay son of Strathmore, to play him straight. Quite a number, however, placed small commissions on him to show.

Jimmy McLaughlin thinks B. Morris will win the Brooklyn handicap next Monday with Judge Morrow. Jimmy was starting at Washington last March when Judge Morrow won his first race of the season and he says the Judge is in fine fettle.

Service has a most difficult uncertaking before her this afternoon, defeleating such good ones as Ethel Gray, Lord Willowbrooke, Gov. Fifer, Tim Murphy, Princess Lorraine and Golda with the weight he will have to shoulder, 182 pounds. However, if he manages to accomplish the feat, few will deny that he is the best horse at the distance in the West.

BASE BALL. Some North End admirers of Pat Tebear

of flowers when he stepped to the bat yesterday, but Patsy Bolivar had no occasion to throw bouquets at himself. Instead the Browns threw down himself and his "Spiders' somewhat after the manner in which "McCloskey was thrown." The victorious wind up of the contest furnished the most sensational scene ever witnessed in a local ball park. When the Browns came to the bat in the ninth inning the Clevelands had a good lead of three runs and the spectators had given up hope and settled down to watch the inevitable whitewash. Samehow the silence was too much for Farmer Young and hefailed to find the plate. Patsy took first on balls. Crooks cleared his bronchial pipes and began ululating from the vicinity of third base. Werden joined in from over near first and the bleachers chimed in with a rattling volley of vocal pyretechnics. It was worse on Young than the silence and Gleason was made a present of his base. By this time the voices of the brown-legged coachers were ringing like a shower of pebbles on a cracked boiler. Crooks did more with his mouth than with his bat, for he popped up an easy one to Childs, but when he got back on the coaching line he gave Young so many orders about how to find the plate that David was presented and the bases were full. By this time the crowd was on its feet and when Glassock sent the bail whiszing rapidly into center pandemonium broke loose. Cat calls, shrieks, flying hats and umbrelias spilt the air while Pietz and Gleason scored and when Werden sent Dowd and Glasscock home with a siashing single, the crowd went hysterical and it was five minutes before the kame could go on. Brodie and Quinn went out. But the excitement was not all over. Gleason, who had been turning back somersaults, was a little dizzy and gave Childs first on bails. Burkett singled to right and Kid's Gelivery did not suit McKean. The bases were full and not a man out when Buck hit the bail, but it only got to Gleason and Childs was forced out at home. Virtue drove a hot liner to Glasscock, who fielded to home li of flowers when he stepped to the bat yester-day, but Patsy Bolivar had no occasion to throw bouquets at himself. Instead the
